So Vennie Kocsis, thank you so much for joining me and you're the author of this book cult childs, you have you're a survivor, you've got a fan and fascinating insights into this world of cults and abuse. And let's just start with basically just giving us a sense of, of your of your story, if you can give us you know, the abbreviated version, obviously, because, you know, it's a life but the abbreviated, your story
- V Vennie 00:36
was born in 1969. My father was in the Navy. He retired from the Navy and when I was three years old, he was commissioned as a civilian worker to work on the F 14 jet fighter. So he joined that program, and we ended up living in San Diego. And that is where my mother was recruited into Sam Fife move of God Colt. It starts very slowly, you should come to our Bible, you know, study at our house, and we've got kids and you've got kids. And so that little period of love bombing happened, and then from there, it just rolled on, she began to attend churches in what they called body houses. So now it's about 1972. And they would just hold church in someone's living room in Southern California. And by 1973, my mom had given my father an ultimatum, the cult definitely used the fact that he was building a warplane to solidify that mind control See, the world is ending. Look at what your husband is working on. He's making a warplane also, there was still cold war fear in America. The communists are coming. It is time to head to the mountains. And so that is how we ended up real quick, I'll just tell you, my mother drove us into station wagon to Mississippi State of Mississippi, where they classified you on which compound you were going to live on here in America. It all dependent on if they believe that you had a demon or not. So it's very deep into demonology. My mother was an overweight woman. So she had a demon of gluttony. So she and we had to be sent to what was called a deliverance farm. Okay. And we were separated from my mother. So for four years of my life between the ages of three and seven, I had no contact with my mother. I was not held, I was not loved. It was every single day Abuse and Child labor. They immediately put my mother at what was called the fat table. And they began to give her and other overweight women, they got about a half a cup of food three times a day. So I have memories. And I write about this in my book of literally watching my mother be starved. And as we know, with mind control, it only takes about 24 hours of sleeplessness and starvation and someone's minds dissected. And that's what they did to my mother. So that was the first compound. From there, they sent us to Alaska. So around 1980, Alaska began to pay out what's called PDFs. It's pipeline dividend funds. And they were giving out around $1,000 per resident. So Sam Fife and his men who, by the way, bought closed down secret military bases. So the first compound was almost 280 acres and was already set up like a military base, barracks, officers quarters, already their mess hall, the whole nine yards. In Alaska, they began to build so they could homestead still at that time. So they sent a bunch of their people up there to stake land. And then they went up and bought the land. And they started mass moving us to Alaska, they built five compounds, because that's where the money was. And they are still strong in Alaska today. And I don't know how deep you want me to go into the abuse. But I have experienced and witnessed some hurt. It doesn't bother me, but I care about your viewers. So I'll let you guide me on what is okay to talk about it.

S

Sean 04:42

Yeah, I mean, we don't have to go into all the details of, of the abuse. I guess what I what's interesting to me is sort of understanding how these how you what you've learned about how these networks operate, how they're, they're intertwined with protection from government, yeah, personnel and, you know, connected to the corporate side. So Can you give us a little bit of a portrait of how you understand the networks to to

V

Vennie 05:04

Sure! Alaska is a very interesting state. It's not often looked at Sam five was able to obtain government contracts. For instance, my brother, when we ended up in Alaska, he was only about 14 instead of going to school. He was working on government contracts, building sections of pipeline. So there was a lot of child labor going on. The government's never checked on us. My father even at one time sent me to see CPS report. And the LEA and I write about this in my book as well, that she came out to check on us and I purposely made my body language scream. I purposely shuffled my feet on the ground and hoping please just notice me. She didn't she wrote a report that everything was fine. My brother ran away, twice. First time he got picked up by Alaska State Trooper who transported him to another compound so he could be transported back. How did that state trooper not do that? So there's a lot of those types of things. We live very isolated. We were not allowed to have any contact with the outside world listen to any secular music. I missed a whole decade of life. Okay. There was a time they allowed National Geographic in, but they would cut out the pictures of naked breasts. So you might see a page of you know, maybe an African tribe, but then like the chest part is cut out so you you know what's there. You know, they did things like that really kept the mind dissected. A lot of that Jim Jonesy kind of behavior tapes playing of preaching services lasted eight, nine hours. Right now To this day, you have people who grew up there who are in Alaskan government shall use as a senator in Alaska who is associated with one of the compounds. One of the ads just ran for so they get the small district right and then they move out move out to they can get into Congress, but they're very intertwined. And there's a lot of questionable things about this cold one of the men Dr. McClain who helped broker a lot of this land. If you look up a case, the US Exchange Commission versus Stephen for around Vince Vaughn's stepfather and Doug McLean. They made a serum Well, there was a doctor who made a serum out of goat's blood, and said that this serum through infusion could cure anything. Well, the US would not approve a study on this. So he hooked up with some missionaries and send them in to take it to Africa. We'll test it over there. So he starts doing infusions on AIDS patients who couldn't eat or wanting and they begin to get better. Then he moves to cancer children, they begin to get better. He comes back to the United States approaches Fauci and gets a study approved now, he says, hey, look, we've got this is working here. As I understand, and I know there's a reporter doing a story on this. That doctor in April of 2007, dropped dead on his floor. The study was shut down. And when you look at that case, Doug McClain who helped found the cold that I grew up in, by the end of April 2007, they were selling shares to that and they sold shares to that to the tune of $25 million before they got busted now. Doug McLean did not do one day in prison. His son did. Steven for rounded, but Doug did not. So there are some definite, questionable connections. Doug McLean swindled an elderly man in Texas out of $200,000 and says to the prosecuting attorney, all pay him back, the prosecuting attorney dropped the charges. Who do you know, that can slide out of things like that? So yeah, there's all kinds of that Whitestone, one of the compounds in Alaska at one time, Alaska was funding their 300,000 gallon gas reserve. Why? Why do they get that money? So yeah, there's definitely and we've been to the FBI, myself and fellow survivors saying, Hey, this is human trafficking at its best under the guise of freedom of religion, and they don't care. I've put in a DOJ report, I reported to the FBI. Funny story how me and my friend even found the FBI office in Alaska in fair bangs, which sits in the back of a chiropractic office. And as soon as I mentioned the word cold, he shut down. No, no, what let's not call it a call. I'm like, no, it's a cult. Like, this is the roadmap for call. So I don't know, Shawn. Why, except for you know, there's deeper connections that you don't want to rattle that that cage.

S Sean 10:45
Absolutely, absolutely. harp is

V Vennie 10:47
up their heart. Yes, yes. So I was in their heart, we were taken to the military base. There's a whole nother level of this story that I don't talk about publicly, such as the tunnels and the bases and what so what took you to the military base? And what was the purpose of that?

S Sean 11:00

V Vennie 11:05
I'm still working on memory retrieval on some of this. I also had near death experiences as a child and I those are very clear memories that I write about, where I went into different dimensions and one dimension, there was grays and I did an art piece about this very loving situation. Okay. When I got to Alaska, it's interesting. My sister who by the way, this is not something she's strong enough to talk about. But we'll hold two memories are the two parts of the memory. She said to me one day, do you remember us driving up to the mountains and those big windmill things? And I was like, yeah, that's hard. She's like, I remember them building that. Now, think about this. If you go online, and you look up harp, they tell you it wasn't built till 1996. Bullshit. They were building it. And so then I said, Yeah, do you remember going inside of, of this mountain? She's like, No, I don't remember that part. But I know that I drove up there with you. I believe that there was some interdimensional testing going on. So stay with me, if you look at your body's DNA as having the ability to hold levels and levels and levels of dimensional information, it was an experience of using the highly telepathic children to show how to go inside instead of outside. So I'm always looking here looking down in earth, I'm not an outer space person, because my experiences have to do with the inner part of this earth. And so I have some memory of some things that happen there I have a story about I'm going to actually publish some of this in like kind of a science fiction realm, but some experiences with some greys a lot of telepathy talk meditating What did you see what did you find what what are you seeing? So, a lot of that is is is is what can a child access within themselves, but then again, going into some of the abuse the abuse side of it, in my understanding is the control side right. And explain a little bit of that what what would they What are they trying to achieve in terms of the control was it to get to develop your psychic abilities and things like this as far as using it for information and we know the CIA was involved in things like remote viewing for example, right. So, this is not far fetched. As far as the mind control we know about the mind control experiments to see where the psyche can go and when the traumatized mind basically how where can Where can the mind how powerful the human mind can be actually even to the place of telekinesis for example, right starting fires or things like this that can be achieved. So was this what you felt like they would they were trying to do in terms of working you know, with the with the trauma, the trauma is traumatizing you for you know what purpose essentially.

Sean 13:44

V

Vennie 14:32

Okay? And I started being raped at three in Massachusetts it no bones about it. That's exactly what it is. And I understand about sodomy and the Akina kata at the bottom of our spine, which is the bundle of nerves that runs up the spine and it ends were here and into your pineal gland. So damaging that in a child especially Starting at three like I was three or under seven before too much critical thinking kicks in, um, is is important because that's how you keep control of with the fear, right? So also you have to understand that this core belief that pedophilia was a demon and that it could be cast out. So they welcome to those people to come to the cult for healing. So here's all these kids surrounded by pedophiles. And if I want to have access to children, and I'm a pedophile, well, I'll just act like I want healing. But who can't who raped you that at the beginning?

S

Sean 15:35

V

Vennie 15:38

On the first compound his name was was Walsall Shinya. He was the he ran it. So each compound had an elder and an elders wife that that ran the compound and then they had elders with them. So at mealtime laso had his table and his chosen and free to his wife had her table and her chosen ladies. So it was very much classes hierarchy. My clearest memories are definitely Walsall. And I'm not the only child. Every child I've talked to is like, yes, he was disgusting and gross. There's another man named, and he's dead. At this point he's passed away from from age, I'm sure. And then there's what I call Mirage memories, where you see things and shadows, and you know what's going on, but you can't catch the faces and the names. Does that make sense? Absolutely. So there's a lot of that my sister has that my brother has that other children. Okay. So what is the purpose? The purpose is to dissect because scientifically, at three years old, our brain is what, like 70, to 80% developed. So the only way to really dissect the brain quickly is through trauma. We know this to be true. And I believe that the use of the demonology so strong on us was to make sure that I never realized how spiritually powerful I am. Right, don't don't serve yourself, only God. So if I ever use anything that was inside of me psychically in any other way, except for what they instructed me, I was sinning. And I would go to hell for that. Unless it was a vision. So that trauma and that fear kept me disempowered, kept me malleable. As a child. very malleable, the fear was next level. But when I was in these spaces, and I again, I am still deeply exploring them. I sit in meditation with myself. So I'm very picky about outside influence. those spaces were peaceful. And I do remember the van, I know that rest bassel Lega drove it. And then when I met a fifth generation cold child, and she's like, Oh, yeah, I know Ross bass Lega, he drives the van, boom, there was a verification for me, right, that this memory I have is right. And he's still alive. So everything that happened inside, I know that we went into a huge mountainous massive, mountainous open space. And there was like a railway system tunnel that went through. And past that, were our, um, lots and lots of maze like rooms. And I knew them well. I've drawn them have a drawing of them. And there's flip cards on the side, and I know how to use them. Like if you took me there right now i'd know my way around. So I can see that in my mind. But I've been back to Alaska a couple of times trying to get anywhere near poker flats and your heart, your any of those places to even forget it, you know, it's like trying to be around area 51. Yeah, there's some shit going on up there. And it definitely has to do with Inner Earth HAARP is not in my opinion. And my experience of what I remember HAARP has nothing to do with the weather. Whenever it is, and it has to do with Give me a second and let me think of my I need to say this properly. energies picking up energies, energy data. What if a big system could read you or manipulate you through energies what happens under ground beneath them. They're a conduit, a conduit that sends out, but doesn't have anything to do with the weather. That's my understanding. And I do not stand on any platform saying I'm the righteous truth. I'm just sharing my story. That from my ex, where I was was very close to them. And it felt like they were testing, yes, remote viewing. But it's a little hard for me to articulate this in human language. I'm not sure why. I'm trying to find words in human language to fit my visuals. And sometimes I struggle with that. Because we could go back into a circle to the beginning of my birth, where my father's told me that I was produced as a spawn through two different government programs. What does that mean? There's some hybrid hybrid ism going on here.

S Sean 21:04
Yeah, he did.

V Vennie 21:07
He did tell me that I have it in an email. I asked him, What do you mean, he's very military. And she worked at area 51 till 2010. So he went from Miramar and went to work for groom Lake, getting information out of my father's like, forget it.

S Sean 21:25
But he knew what was going on with you in terms of the abuse.

V Vennie 21:30
We, the only thing he's ever said is, I knew something bad was probably going on with you kids. So I don't know, Shawn, I have a lot of unanswered questions, to be honest with you about my story. Um, you know, I try to stay very in critical thinking, and in what I know, to be true inside of myself, but I was a very psychic bright child, I have memories back into the womb, and I was a twin. And I don't know if that twin really died, or if that twins alive. I don't know, your mind

S Sean 22:08
those Nazi experiments on the twins, you know, obviously, that was a very,

V Vennie 22:12
my sister said, I remember to bass and that's and then there was one, no one ever explained to her. Anything, she would have only been four or five when I was born. So I don't know about that. But I've definitely lived with that great loss through my life. But my sister and I both are very psychic children. And my father's acknowledged that he's, and I have memories of him, like showing me off to the Grumman crew like but but in good times, not in a pedophilia type way. But more like, look how smart my baby is, kind of thing. I do think that they targeted my mother and other parents. And then of course, they're gonna keep that test group very small, and stick you in a cold. And nobody else in the cult knows that's not uncommon for government programs. Look at Jim Jones. None of those people knew who he really was. They really thought they were part of a church. And that's what I was in. But I don't think that I was just there to be a part of church. And I wouldn't be surprised. I have questions about my grandmother. And her connections because she came to visit once. And it was just so weird, Sean, like, weird, nobody was allowed on that compound. You had to jump through hoops to get on that compound. But here my grandma came honkin up in a in a fancy little trailer, you know, sounds like your father's mother.

V Vennie 23:48
My mother's mother.

S Sean 23:50
Your mother was the one that brought you into the court in the first place. And did your mother ever wake up to what had been done to you? Or is was she always in denial?

V Vennie 24:04
It went and spoke in and I was in traumatic amnesia for a while because I was a single mom. So I buried everything just like barreled into life. You know. And then when my mom died, a lot of memory broke. I think she had a great guilt but she had a little bit of a narcissistic ego that wouldn't quite let her acknowledge that so she was definitely evangelical till she died and was a you know, call you fucking whore with the Bible holding the Bible in her hand type. So we had Stockholm Syndrome with her.

S Sean 24:43
So your parents were separated at that point?

V Vennie 24:47
Yeah, my mom let gave my dad an ultimatum. My dad said the last time that he came home from being off testing, my mother had consolidated all like me. We all we had a nice house. It was naval housing the military was paying for it. She consolidated me my brother and sister into one bedroom and had the whole house full of bunk beds for cold people to stay. So that's how young and soon I was around complete strangers. So who knows, you know, and then I write about I start my book out in a trip when my mother had the U haul, and me and my brother and sister were deathly sick with the flu. And we all feel like we were stressed sick. Like, we knew we were going somewhere real bad. You know, our senses. All three of us kids are my brother's very Warlock, he, you know, he'll call me up, hey, we feel each other. We were all very sensory. And we're very sensory children. And, and I think they targeted us.

S

Sean 25:54

So your father would never Is he still alive? Yes. Do you think that he could ever get them to maybe write something in his memoirs or something that he would basically leave in case? You know, if his passing that at least you'd have some answers? If he's not willing to open up before?

V

Vennie 26:10

I've been talking to my dad since 2010. Um, he's a real cryptic talker. I do have some emails where he'll, he'll say, okay, so like, I'll ask him the question. Could it be this did? Okay, so I've studied cells, and how the light nucleus right, but the lighter your nucleus is, the healthier you are. And these two German scientists did a study where they separated nucleuses and watch the lighter ones come together. And the not so light ones kind of scattered over here. So I began to study this hybrid ism, like how could it be? How could it happen? Well, it could happen through light. Right? Can light be injected into the nucleus a lot, a light source from something else from another beings? DNA. Right. So now I'm getting into genomics, which I will nerd out on. But the conversation that I had with him was kind of like they tried once it didn't work, then they tried again, and I said, I asked him if my mom was injected, because I have to ask these cryptic questions. So he doesn't feel like he's given away government secrets. And he said, No. And so I said, Okay, so it was through actual sex. I was born through actual sex. And he said, Yes. So the only way that I can understand that type of spawning, is that my father had injections somehow to change the nucleus of his Yeah, you got to get a genomics. I know, the mind goes like this. But when you get into the genomics of cells and how they come together, and how creation is made, how can that be? Well, I mean, you can look at test tube babies, they do this all the time, they abroad sperm, Oh, you want to boy, we can make a boy for you. So if you look at it with that process, but you're adding in a possible interdimensional DNA that is in the form of light added to a nucleus. That's the best I can get to it. To understand that we are in a time of hybrid is like everybody talks about full disclosure, when we are already in full disclosure, there are hybrids on this planet right now. I'm one of them. And highly spiritual people. Right? not all bad people. Maybe there are bad ones. I don't know.

But I think that is that middle bridge. So if you want to meet who you want to meet, you got to meet us first. And you've got to become and and get your consciousness so that that they feel safe, and loved. So I feel like that is the end game. To create a generation of hybrids willing to go we embrace you. Does that make sense? like Santa was full disclosure right now. And aliens arrived on Earth. What do you think that reaction would be? Yeah, well, understandably, human consciousness is getting there. You know, there's more awareness now. But the UFOs certainly once you get new york times and others posting videos, it helps people to understand that. But certainly, most humans are not there yet in terms of their consciousness, they still look at it as all demonic and I think what's interesting to me is that many people like yourself, I think of Whitley Strieber is one of them who's talks about this, but in many others,

Sean 29:14

29:46

not least,

S

Sean 29:48

we're part of basically they had something happened. They were connected to military families, and had something very mysterious happening in their childhood. You know, whether it was part of he calls it a secret school that he was taken to, but some level of abuse, you know, rape, you could even call it but some kind of abuse taking place at a young age traumatizing, but also on hours of work. Well, it His story is complex. But the point is that something that essentially creates a trauma that's compartmentalizes memories that come off later in life, but also potentially allow access to that multidimensionality. And it makes you wonder, I mean, he's a bit more optimistic about the traumas that he's endured from what he calls the visitors, you know, that extra dimensional entities. Some people would say, his demons, you know, that are, you know, torturing humans, but he says he looks at it as suffering as an unnecessary awakening process to actually heighten your sensibility to actually go there in terms of your awareness. So, I mean, I don't think that it's, I don't know, personally, I don't think that it's necessary to rape kids to get them to wake up their senses and their abilities to to become multi dimensional. But it does seem that it's part of some of these experiments, and some of these programs is the actual traumatization of children to activate their psychic abilities and things like this.

Vennie 31:09

And there's two things that come to mind. Let me write a real quick note. So I don't forget, okay. So I'm gonna tell you. Okay, so many years ago, I lived in Reno, Nevada. And I had a second job as a manager at a blockbuster video store. And one Saturday morning, there was nobody there, I was working the morning shift. And this First Nations man came in, and he was older. And we just ended up kind of cruising through the aisles, and we get to talking and you know how sometimes conversations just go so deep, that happened. And we shared our stories with one another. And he was talking to me about like, the four ways that you could lose your soul or what the First Nations people believe. And then he put his hand on my shoulder. And he said, my sister, it takes a powerful spirit to come to this planet and suffer. And I never looked at my life like that before. I'd always kind of lamented, right. And I was like, holy crap, what a deep and positive way to understand my experiences. And kind of like how I feel about trees, you've got to be one heck of a soul to be a jury right and stand for 1000s of years and die and be reborn each year. But um, I have a memory conversation from childhood. And I don't know exactly where it happened. But this is the memory conversation. And oh, gosh, I'll probably get slammed for this, that these abductions that are all alike, are not creatures from out of space. They're humans posing. So then I remembered deeper into the conversation. I'm like, wait a minute, so I meditated more. And I saw one of their ships, propulsion. It's been around forever. It's nothing muscle my father does. The stealth everything, okay, it's been around forever. And so I saw this massive bright light. And these wires coming down. And the impression of drugs being used to alter this person's consciousness. So as they are laying on this lift, it seems like they're levitating. But they are not levitating. They're being pulled up to have this experience, so that they will come back and say, I just got abducted. I recall this conversation. It was being laughed about. And I'm trying to still work on how old was I? Where did it happen? Um, you know, and it will come my body's good at like, I just received memory and received memory. But I think it's important that we consider this agenda of disinformation, I mean, for us to wrap our head around the government doing that you and I can wrap our head around it, but the average person would be like, come on. But see, after what I've been through, there's nothing I roll out. But it's almost like I remembered that conversation is that they would all believe it was true that it was actually aliens. And then I also remember a conversation about the difference between aliens and extraterrestrials. The aliens are always manmade and extraterrestrials are not. And so

Sean 34:55

I should say extra dimension. All right,

V

Vennie 34:56

yeah. And when I will descend to light Talk of certain people, I really listen to language deeply. How are they using it? You know, what are they saying when it comes to full disclosure? So that's a big part of my story aside from cult dynamics, that I haven't talked a lot about, you know, it's, it's sometimes a scary arena to get into. Part of that is, you know, have a family. All of those things that you're like, you know, are people gonna think I'm batshit crazy. It's, it's, it's hard to. I'm getting there, though. I'm getting to that comfort level of speaking these truths. You know, obviously, I've spoken, you know, with Kathy at great lengths, and certain people that great, but never publicly?

S

Sean 35:55

Um, what's it's difficult, it's difficult to understand, you know, you can have your experiences, but then put them into a context. Yeah, that actually, you know, you don't know if it's true or not, because, you know, again, it's like, trying to unravel this massive conspiracy that involves so many different layers of personnel and their agenda. So at the end, you know, I guess at the heart of it, what do you feel like the agenda of what you went through? What do you feel that was about if you could, you know, give your intuition?

Vennie 36:30

I had the psychologist for many years. And she said to me one time, if you found out that your experience was for the greater good, would it change the way you feel about what happened to you? I thought, What a weird question. But then I thought, Well, yeah, maybe I could have done without the abuse, right. Um, I believe I'm part of full disclosure, I believe, what my father told me that I am a hybrid, it makes sense, the things that I know inside of my own cells, and can read and and the connections that I have, and the things that have come to me that I've never read anywhere, there's just no denying that. And I just really feel that that is the end game, that there is going to be a time where we're needed. And maybe that time is now all the things that I'm involved in Shawn have to do with healing generational trauma, we've got to heal it, for there to be global change. And so that's all a part of this process. And, and that's my purpose is like, let's heal these inner let's heal our wounds. You know, if I could go through what I went through and heal from it, Kathy can go through what she went through and be who she is today. There's no stopping us. Right? We just have to accept this process. So maybe that's the end game. Um, I do think there's something coming to me that I don't know yet. I get a very strong sense of that. I just remained very open and spiritual, and I'm very in tune with myself. But I think part of it was testing, like the Stargate project testing. If you talk to some of the people that were in the Stargate project, they'll say, oh, it didn't exist back in the 70s.

Sean 38:31

The Stargate being psychic abilities.

Vennie 38:34

But I disagree. They might not have called it the same, but I, I always lean towards that understanding that anything that gets publicized, the government's had it for probably about 20 years. You know,

Sean 38:46

100% we know that out there technology wise has been out there for years before? Yeah, yeah. So when I look at it like that, I think that during that time, definitely the cult trained us to fight the communists. That was a massive fear. I was backpacking with 50 pounds on my back and learning to shoot double barrel rifles at 12. Like, we learned hardcore survivalism. So there was that aspect to that the Russians were coming and they were gonna bring communism here. And the funny thing is, they although the Russians, we kind of are in that time, there is this weird, maybe this is the moment you are trained for.

Vennie 38:51

Sean 39:31

Vennie 39:34

Right? Like I think about that, like how interesting because there is a severance of of socialism and communism trying to be forced on us. And I'm part of that voice fighting that so maybe there's all kinds of purposes I have accepted them all.

Sean 39:49

I can appreciate that what you said like it's almost like the best is yet to come concept like it you know, you have to trust as we go through our life. It makes more sense as we go through it and we're like, oh, that's why I went through this expense. So that's why I learned this, oh, that's why I had that experience, it starts the puzzles, like you can't see the puzzle until all the pieces are together. And it's like, sometimes you have to get to that moment at the end where, I don't know at the end, somewhere along the journey, it starts to make more sense. So let's trust that time is coming.

Yeah, and I, I just have learned acceptance. That's been my, my strength is I accept this current moment, a memory will hit me, they used to cripple me. Now I just go, Okay, let me grab my pen, right, write it down. Or I'm, I'm in a good place of acceptance. I feel really healed and strong and like, ready. And so that's my purpose. My purpose is to meet you and Kathy and these amazing people who are helping change the world. If that's not the best purpose I can think of to be a part of, I don't know what it is, you know.
